

LANDLORD TRAINING PROGRAM

KEEPING ILLEGAL ACTIVITY OUT OF RENTAL PROPERTIES

You are invited to attend a program that will teach participants a range of effective tools to address drug activity and other illegal activities in rental housing.

The National Landlord Training Program is designed to help communities use the Landlord Training Program and other tools to address problems associated with rental-based illegal activity.

Law enforcement needs your help. Prevention efforts must include the involvement of those with the greatest leverage to stop the activity at a given location - the property management community!!

This program was originally developed with the support of the U.S. Department of Justice. The training will be presented by the original creator of the program and coordinator of the National Landlord Training Seminars, John Campbell.
