

Dudley N. Anderson was elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Lycoming County in 1997. He was retained for an additional ten year term in 2007.

Prior to his election as Judge, he was in private practice for 22 years with the firm of Anderson and Mathers which has an emphasis in civil law. Judge Anderson received his J.D. from Widener University and his B.A. from Lycoming College. He was been an active member of the Williamsport community having served a term on the Williamsport City Council and service to numerous civic and charitable businesses.

As a Judge, he has served two terms on the Statewide Ethics Committee for the Pennsylvania Conference of Trial Judges and is presently Vice-President of the Pennsylvania Conference of Trial Judges.