RE: COPMMONWEALTH V. PATRICK WRIGHT

City Man Convicted of Fourth DUI, Fifth DUI Pending

A city man is scheduled for sentencing December 8 after a fourth conviction for driving under the influence of alcohol.

On October 17, a jury found Patrick E. Wright, 47, of 1554 Mt. Carmel St., guilty of DUI. The case was prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Martin Wade.

Wright was arrested in early March, 2013 in Muncy Township, by Trooper Erik Barlett. The trooper measured Wright driving at a high rate of speed and pulled the vehicle over. Though the driver refused to give a blood sample, he was observed with bloodshot eyes and with an odor of alcohol.

Following a trial in front of Judge Dudley N. Anderson, the jury found Wright guilty. It's the man's fourth conviction for DUI in Lycoming and Clinton counties. According to court records, Wright also has an additional pending DUI case.
