

What To Expect and Instructions On How To Vote at the Polls

- 1. When going to the polls to vote, do not wear any campaign material that is exposed. You will be asked to remove it.
- 2. Do not discuss any political subjects inside the polling place.
- 3. When entering the polls, the Election Officials at the table may ask you your name, address, and possibly your birth date. In the Primaries you may also be asked your party affiliation. They will announce your name.
- 4. Starting 2012 November Election all voters must show PHOTO ID.
- 5. After determining you are eligible to vote, you will be ask to sign your name on the certificate inside the poll book. When doing this, check your address listed. If it is incorrect tell the Official, who will give you a Change of Address Form.
- 6. When entering the Voting Booth, if you are not sure of the instructions. Ask one of the Election Officials for instructions.
- 7. Read the instructions on the first page and every page that follows.
- 8. If you make a mistake, notify the Election Official and ask for assistance. ONCE YOUR VOTE HAS BEEN CAST YOU CANNOT BE ISSUED ANOTHER BALLOT.