

LYCOMING COUNTY
DIVORCE UNDER 3301(D)
(parties separated for over one year;
no complaint filed)
SELF-HELP KIT

REMEMBER

The law often changes. Each case is different. This self-help kit is meant to give you general information and not give you specific legal advice.

DIVORCE PROCEDURE

These forms are not designed for complicated divorce issues. To deal with these matters, you will need additional forms that are not included in this packet and you will need to hire a lawyer. Examples of a complicated divorce matter include a request to divide property, receive alimony, payment of lawyers' fees and expenses, or if your spouse is in the military. In addition, if you wish to proceed under the law which presumes consent to divorce by the perpetrator of a personal injury crime against you, you cannot use these forms. Instead, you may get forms by visiting the state website at:

<http://www.pacourts.us/learn/representing-yourself/divorce-proceedings>

This self-help kit is designed to be used to file and obtain a divorce where the parties have already been separated for at least one year.

BE WARNED THAT IF YOU FAIL TO RAISE A CLAIM FOR ALIMONY, DIVISION OF PROPERTY, LAWYERS' FEES OR EXPENSES IN YOUR DIVORCE COMPLAINT, YOU WILL LOSE ALL RIGHT TO MAKE SUCH CLAIMS ONCE THE DIVORCE DECREE IS ENTERED.

STEP ONE: The Notice to Defend and Complaint with Verification, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and Counter-Affidavit and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service

A divorce case is started with the filing of a “Complaint”. There are two forms that make up the Complaint; a “Notice to Defend and Claim Rights” must be attached on top, and the Complaint for Divorce, which ends with a “Verification”, must be attached on the bottom. The Complaint is filed in the Prothonotary’s Office. You must pay a filing fee (unless you have been granted a fee waiver, and this request is to be filed with your Complaint). The caption at the top of the forms includes the County’s name, your name, your spouse’s name, and the docket number assigned to your case by the Prothonotary. This caption must be identical on all documents filed in your case, no matter which party is filing a document.

When proceeding under Section 3301(d), which allows for divorce following a period of separation of at least one year, you must also file an “Affidavit Under Section 3301(d)” which sets forth the date of separation. There are two forms that make up this document, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and a Counter-Affidavit. The Counter-Affidavit is to be completed by your spouse, if they so choose. This affidavit must be served on the Defendant in the same manner as the Divorce Complaint. Therefore, if at the time you file the Complaint you and your spouse have been separated already for one year or more, it is recommended that the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) be filed and served with the Complaint.

Unless your spouse is represented by an attorney, when you file the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) you are also required to file an Affidavit of Non-Military Service, verifying that your spouse is not in the military service. Although a copy of this affidavit can be served on your spouse by regular mail, for convenience sake, you can include it with the other documents being served.

How to Complete Step 1

1. Complete all three pages of the Divorce Complaint following the detailed instructions on the next page.
 2. Complete the first page of the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and the caption only of the Counter-Affidavit, following the detailed instructions preceding the form.
 3. Complete the Affidavit of Non-Military Service following the detailed instructions preceding the form.
2. After you have filled out the Complaint and both Affidavits, make two copies of each form. (If you are also requesting to have the filing fee waived, fill out a Petition to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs and make one copy of that form.)
3. File the Complaint and Affidavits (and the fee waiver petition, if you are using it). Take the originals and the copies to the Prothonotary's office. They will time-stamp the originals and the copies. They will keep the original Complaint and Affidavits in their file and return the copies to you. (If you have filed a Petition to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs, they will send the original petition with proposed Order to the Judge and keep your copy in their office; you will get your copy back once the Judge signs the Order, showing whether the petition was granted or denied. If the Petition is denied, the Prothonotary will send you a letter telling you the fee that must be paid.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE DIVORCE COMPLAINT

STEP TWO: Service of the Complaint and Affidavits

After filing the Notice to Defend and Complaint, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service, these documents must be served on the other party within thirty (30) days of the date they are file-stamped. (If the other party does not live in Pennsylvania, the time requirement is extended to ninety (90) days.) Service must be made by either (1) acceptance of service, (2) regular and certified mail, or (3) personal service.

If service is not completed within 30 days (or 90 if the other party does not live in Pennsylvania), you must complete and file a Praecipe to Reinstate the Complaint. The date you file this praecipe re-starts the clock for service and you will have another 30 days to serve the other party (or 90 days if the other party does not live in Pennsylvania). If you again do not complete service within the new time period, you may file another praecipe to reinstate the Complaint. You may file this as many times as you need to, but if you continue to have problems completing service, it is recommended that you speak to an attorney. You may not proceed until proper service has been made.

How to Complete Step 2

1. Decide how you are going to serve the defendant and choose the correct form accordingly. Follow these instructions for the form you are using:

a) Acceptance of Service – Give the time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and both Affidavits to the defendant. After being given the documents, the defendant must sign the Acceptance of Service. Keep this Acceptance of Service, to be filed. MAKE SURE THE DEFENDANT DOES NOT SIGN/DATE THE ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE BEFORE THE FILE-STAMPED DATE ON THE COMPLAINT.

b) Service by Mail – You will need to make an extra copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and both Affidavits. Mail one of the time-stamped copies of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and both Affidavits to the defendant by regular mail and the other one by certified mail, return receipt requested, restricted delivery (you must specify this type of mailing at the Post Office). Wait for the green card to be returned to you and if it is signed by the defendant, make a copy of it for your records and tape the original, with the signature side showing, to a blank piece of paper. Fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail and attach the paper with the green card on it.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was refused, wait until it has been 15 days since you mailed the documents to the defendant and, if the regular mail envelope is not returned to you, fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail. Make a copy of the refused certified mail envelope for your records and then attach the original envelope to the affidavit of service.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was unclaimed, you must use another form of service.

c) Personal service – an adult, other than you, may personally hand the time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and the Affidavits to the other party. This may be the Sheriff, a private courier service, or any reliable third party. The person who hands the papers to your spouse must sign a completed Affidavit of Personal Service.

2. After you have completed service and have the completed Acceptance of Service, Affidavit of Service by Mail or the Affidavit of Personal Service, make one copy.

3. Take the original and the copy to the Prothonotary's office and file it. The Prothonotary's office will keep the original and return the copy to you – this is for your records.

ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint and Affidavits on your spouse by you, yourself, handing a time-stamped copy of the documents to him or her. After being given the documents, your spouse must sign the Acceptance of Service. (If your spouse won't sign an Acceptance of Service, you must choose one of the other methods of service.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE

1. At the top of the "Acceptance of Service", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". Write your case number on the blank line after "No.". That is all you write on this page.
2. After you hand a time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) with blank Counter-Affidavit and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service to your spouse, have him or her put a check mark next to the "I accept service" statement, write the date on the line next to the word "date" and sign on the line above the words "Defendant's Signature". Keep this Acceptance of Service, to be filed per the instructions in Step 2.

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint and Affidavits on your spouse by having a competent adult hand a time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to him or her. You, yourself, cannot do this because “competent adult” is specifically defined in the Rules of Civil Procedure to mean someone at least 18 years of age who is not a party to the action and not a relative or employee of a party.

That person should then write the date of signing on the line next to the word “date” and sign on the line above the words “Signature of Person who Served Defendant”. This form is used only when you are unable to serve the Complaint on the Defendant within 30 days (or 90 days if they do not live in Pennsylvania). To the Prothonotary:

Respectfully submitted,

Date: _____

Plaintiff's signature

STEP THREE: Wait twenty (20) days

STEP FOUR: Complete and File a Notice of Intention to File the Praecipe to Transmit Record. Mail copy to spouse and file Certificate of Service.

After twenty days have passed since you served the defendant with the Complaint and Affidavits, check with the Prothonotary to see if your spouse filed any economic claims. (You can call the Prothonotary's office at 570-327-2251.) If your spouse did file economic claims, you should seek the advice of an attorney; you cannot proceed with requesting that the divorce decree be entered. If your spouse did not file any economic claims, you may proceed.

After twenty days have passed since you served the Complaint and Affidavits, you next file a Notice of Intention to File The Praecipe to Transmit Record, which provides notice to your spouse that you are about to ask the Court to enter the Divorce Decree.

Once you have filed the Notice, you will send a copy of the Notice to your spouse, along with another blank Counter-Affidavit. You must then file a Certificate of Service.

How to Complete Step 4

1. Complete the Notice of Intention to file Praecipe to Transmit Record according to the detailed instructions preceding the form. Make two copies of the Notice.
2. Take the Notice with blank Counter-Affidavit and the copies to the Prothonotary's office.
3. The Prothonotary will file-stamp all documents, keeping the originals and returning the copies to you.*
4. Mail one of the file-stamped copies of the Notice with blank Counter-Affidavit to your spouse by first class (regular) mail. Keep the other copy for your records.
5. Complete a Certificate of Service according to the detailed instructions preceding the form. Make one copy of this document.
6. Take the original and the copy to the Prothonotary's office.
7. The Prothonotary will file-stamp both, keeping the original and returning the copy to you.
8. You must again wait twenty (20) days from the date of mailing the Notice to your spouse before you can move to Step 5.

*(Note – you can fill out the Certificate of Service at the same time as you fill out the Notice, and file everything at once if you are sure you will put the copy of the Notice in the mail to your spouse just after filing everything.)

Unless you have already filed with the court a written claim for economic relief, you must do so by the above date, or the court may grant the divorce or an order approving grounds for divorce, and you may lose forever the right to ask for economic relief. The filing of the form counter-affidavit alone does not protect your economic claims.
