This is a great way to net-work with fellow county retirees & enjoy an afternoon out! If you would like to join, please see the back page for member dues and details.

Meeting Minutes

June 8, 2017 – Buttery Biscuit

Treasurer's report: $1,226.58 Received thank you for memorial contribution for Jim Reed.

Voted to return to Buttery Biscuit for another meeting.

Alice Bair had sample welcome bags to hand out to new retirees to get them interested in coming to meetings. Discussion that we do not always know who new retirees are. Would like HR to notify us. Also not finding minutes under HR website.

December 12th is Christmas party: Patty Fawber to make arrangements at Villa.

Esther Cohick will remain secretary till the end of the year. We will need to replace her. Since no one has volunteered, Alice asked people to think about it.

Jerry McGee passed away.

Rachelle from STEP spoke to us on the free programs available to Seniors through STEP. On June 22nd there will be a meal and demonstrations of programs at the River Walk Center, South Williamsport.

Meeting to adjourn (Sharon Slacum motion, Tony Rampulla – 2nd.)

Evie Kreger, Acting secretary

Meeting Minutes

Minutes: Tuesday, August 8, 2017 –

LYCOMING COUNTY RETIREES PICNIC

Officers present: ALICE BAIR - Chair

JEAN STUMP – Vice Chair

BARB THOMAS – Treasurer

ESTHER COHICK – Secretary

(CRAWFORD)

The Annual Lycoming County Retirees Picnic was held by invitation at Russ & Marie Reitz's "Gracious Meadows" farm with 36 members and guests present. Russ Reitz ask a blessing for the meal. The menu consisted of London Broil, Corn-on-the-cob, Baked Potatoes, Salads, Beverage and Desserts.

A brief meeting was held. The reading of previous Minutes was dismissed as was the Treasurer's report.

It was noted that Jean Stump will take over as the recording Secretary as Esther Crawford Cohick previously announced her resignation. Jean will be Vice Chair/Secretary beginning in 2018. Russ Reitz announced that Sue & Jerry Quigel donated 2 dishes for today's meal.

Alice called for adjournment. Members seconded.

Meeting Minutes

October 12, 2017 – Perkins Restaurant

23 retirees and spouses present – Officers present were Chairman Bair and Treasurer Thomas.

No secretary's report. Treasurer reported balance of $768.37 after mailing for past year and picnic supplies paid. (Rick Wehler – 1st, Russ Reitz-2nd)

Discussion on Christmas party reservations: this year both the party reservations and the dues will be mailed to Treasurer Barb Thomas – all can be done with one check and one postage..

Cliff Kanz had questions on how the retirement cost of living is figured and the time frame for letting retirees know. Much discussion with no definite answers – need more communication on this topic.

Ralph Lukens reported on health of Patty Fawber's husband Donny.

Happy 81st birthday to Russ Reitz.

Motion to adjourn. (Scott Thomas-1st, Rick Wehler – 2nd).
