DECEMBER 2015

HAPPY RETIREMENT

The RMS staff wishes a warm farewell to Ellen Montis, Residual Waste Specialist, who is retiring December 18th. Ellen has worn many hats over the past 18 years of service with RMS. She has worked with industry, haulers, contractors and DEP on approving wastes for disposal; she has been a customer liaison to assist our customers' on questions of our services, rules and regulations; she has met with industry leaders staying in touch with new or proposed regulations to keep us informed of these changes; and she has put together Customer Newsletters to keep you all informed. We have valued her input and knowledge and we will miss her. Thank you Ellen for your dedication and service to all of us!

HAPPY RETIREMENT ELLEN!!

Please join us in welcoming Donny Hassenplug in his new position of Customer Material Resource Specialist. This is a new title but he will perform the functions that Ellen previously performed. Donny stands ready to assist you in any disposal needs and is your contact person going forward. Donny lives in Spruce Run just outside of Lewisburg and joined RMS in October 2011 as the Environmental Technician. Before joining RMS, Donny spent 4 years serving in the US Army. He then pursued his degree in Environmental Technology at Pennsylvania College of Technology. He looks forward to meeting and working with all of our customers.
